motions

Motion	Purpose	Requirements
Motion for a Moderated Caucus	To have a structured discussion on a specific sub-topic for a limited time.	Must specify a total time (e.g., 10 minutes), a speaking time (e.g., 1 minute), and the topic.
Motion for an Unmoderated Caucus	To suspend all formal rules and allow delegates to mingle, lobby, draft resolutions, and form alliances.	Must specify a total time (e.g., 15 minutes).

Motion	Purpose	Requirements
Motion to Introduce a Draft Resolution	To formally introduce a working document (which is now a Draft Resolution) for debate.	Requires the draft to be approved by the Chair/Dais first.
Motion to Set the Agenda	To decide which of the topics will be debated first. (Used at the very start of the conference).	Must specify the order of the topics.
Motion to Suspend the Meeting	To put the session on hold, usually for a meal or a break.	Must specify a time (e.g., for 1 hour).
Motion to Adjourn the Meeting	To end the committee session completely until the next conference. (This is usually the very last motion).

points

Point of Order: Used to point out a perceived mistake in the application of the rules of procedure.
Point of Personal Privilege: Used to bring to the attention of the chair any personal discomfort or physical difficulty (like being unable to hear, or the room being too hot/cold) that is disrupting the delegate's functioning.
Point of Parliamentary Inquiry (or Point of Inquiry to the Chair): Used to ask the chair a question regarding the rules of procedure.
Point of Information (to the Speaker): A question directed to a delegate after they have finished their speech, provided they yielded time for questions.
